

Attendance Policy

National Truck Training Centre Inc. works to ensure that graduates consistently display excellent skills and professionalism. Employers expect our graduates to be well-trained and reliable employees. This is best achieved throughout the program with good attendance.

For this reason, National Truck Training Centre Inc. expects all students to meet the attendance requirements set by the school and by The Private Vocational Institutions Act. If the student's overall attendance drops below the requirement, dismissal will occur.